The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the New York Express.

FACTS TO THINK OF.

1. That this Government has given away to corporations half as much of the public domain, since 1862, as was given away during the [illegible] for 81 years, and that the amount thus bestowed is equal to $200,000,000.

2. That the amount [illegible] in the U. S. Treasury by the present Congress—in the taxes of which certain manufacturers are relieved in their own interest—is equal to $65,000,000 direct, and $15,000,000 in the reduced rate made on foreign imports.

3. That the controlling Pennsylvania and New England manufacturers, as the price of their allegiance to Radicalism, demanded either that there should be a new tariff, such as was reported, adding from ten to fifty per cent. to the duties on imports, or, in the event of this failing, that taxes should be thrown from all manufactures except gas, tobacco, and whiskey, and the general tax on trades and business. The loss of $30,000,000 to the Government is just so much in the pockets of those who demanded the reduction. The effect has been literally to make the rich richer, and the poor poorer.

4. That in three years the secret income put into the Treasury has been over $2,000,000 a year for three years, or $28,000,000 a year for three years, which the Wellses and Atkinsons take very good care to conceal from the people in the way of expenditure. This is beyond all taxes paid by the people.

5. The Government is to-day living beyond its income, and must so live as long as Radicalism reigns in the land.

6. The election of Gen. Grant means the perpetuation of Radical power. We say this with a knowledge of the men of whom we speak, [illegible]

Gen. Grant will acquiesce in the Tenure of Office Bill. In negro suffrage, in one kind of suffrage for States North and another for States South; and as this is unjust, oppressive, and detestable, there can be no peace in such a policy as his. Besides, it means enforced negro suffrage by Military Power, and this is not peace, but discord, darkness and despotism. Again, the act to engraft and to keep engrafted upon Southern Constitutions the disability to hold office from men who took prominent part in Confederate embraces all the intelligent people of the South. Southern people are called upon

First—To make negro State Senators.

Second—To make negro Assemblymen.

Third—To make negro Justices of the Peace.

Fourth—To make negro Policemen.

Fifth—To make the negro legislators generally.

It is not merely the Ballot which the North puts into the hands of the Southern negro, by the aid of Federal bayonets, but Office.

We do not commit this injustice upon ourselves. Why should we insist upon the great wrong of degrading great States and millions of white people, merely to give these States over to the Radical power and influence?

[From the Land We Love.]

In his great speech at Atlanta, Ben Hill, of Georgia, after exhausting his wonderful vocabulary of epithets of contempt and calumny for the base creatures, who have sold themselves and country for a mess of black pottage, paused to search for another expression of scorn, stronger, bitterer and fiercer than any he had yet employed, and then burst forth with, "O, so vile, unanswerable things!" Others, like the great Georgia orator, have felt the utter inadequacy of the English language to tell the degradation and infamy of this class. The word Scallawag has, therefore, been imported from the Pacific coast. But grant that it imports mean, measly dog, as alleged by some, still, it only partially reveals the baseness of the renegade. It does not speak of that prurient thievishness, which makes the renegade restless, itchy and miscible, without he is not finding office where stealing is sanctified. It is with unfeigned diffidence that we approach a subject encompassed with such difficulties, and it may seem the height of presumption in us to suggest an expressive epithet, when the master of denunciation fave it up in despair. But it has often happened, when men of science had labored for years to make a particularly discovery, some unlearned farmer or mechanic has stumbled upon it unawares. So we think that we have stumbled upon the expression, which Ben Hill sought for and found not. Does not the epithet, "Loyal Fetich," fit the whole tale? Does it not aptly portray the renegade class? No stronger or better word can be found than "loyal" to express this fleshly desire for other people's money. It is beautifully suggestive, significant and suggestive. The people all over the land in its length and breadth understand it to mean just that and nothing more. Fetichism is the lowest and most brutal form of negro worship in their native Africa. The Fetich are the worshippers. The one the "loyal Fetich" are the vilest whites engaged in beastly negro worship. So a single, simple term embraces all the foul mass. The loyal Governor is the Fetich Chief. The loyal judge is the Fetich priest, the site in the temple of justice surrounded by negro jurors, and offers up his odorous incense.—The Chief Justice thus becomes the High Priest of Fetichism. So far as we can learn, the High Priest has been wisely chosen in all the reconstructed States. Some of his subordinate priests have served novitiates in penitentiaries, some in State prisons, and some even in the State, have only taken their degrees in County jails.

A WARNING.—A New York paper warns people in the country not to come to New York in search of employment:

"To come here (says the editor) is tantamount to destitution, hunger and despair. A man may run around for months in search of work, without finding what he wants, so that he is compelled to take anything that is offered. There are sometimes chances for certain people in certain branches of business, but they are few and far between, so far that it is much better for people to remain in the country and work for lower wages, than to come to New York after work, which they have so much difficulty in obtaining. If the country people would know how much misery and destitution is in store for thousands of healthy, able-bodied men and women from now until next spring, they would surely give up all idea of coming here. Let them go South or West, to the mines or the woods, where the cost of living is low, and where there is always some sort of work to be had. If they love themselves, they must stay away from this city."

HAD HER THERE.—An old, deformed negro woman was passing along Fourth street, yesterday afternoon. A fashionable Miss, troubled considerably with the "Grecian bend," turned around and looked after the poor, old, negro woman, and was rather disposed to make fun of her deformity.—The old negro woman stopped and looked at her a minute or two, and very truthfully remarked: "Lor, Miss, you needn't be pokin' fun at me, kase the Lor' a' 'mighty nose you'se a bigger curiosity to look at dan I is." The young lady "humped" herself.—Louisville Journal.

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. O'R GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN FIRST. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS THAT WITH ALL THEIR SEEK, THEY HAVE A VERY AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPROACHED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM LOVE AND DRINK, LOT IN TOGETHER AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

OUR CANDIDATES.

The New York World, after its egregious blunder about changing our candidates, which has brought down upon it merited severity from the Democratic press, has at length wheeled into line and is doing good service. Its blows against Radicalism have not been so strong, or so well aimed, during the campaign, as at present. Had it borne its part the past three months, as well as it is doing now, the results of the election in Pennsylvania, perhaps, would have been all right.

The National Intelligencer, whose noble efforts to sustain the Constitution have been acknowledged by all, we regret to see is still churlish and complaining. It concedes to the Democratic party all that it claims as the protector and preserver of the Constitution, yet marvels that it did not select Judge Chase, or others, rather than the noble Seymour and Blair. It is plain that the only Constitutional party in the country is the Democratic party, and it strikes us that this is enough to induce every lover of civil liberty and the Constitution to concede, without reserve, to the party, the selection of its own nominees.—Let us first save the Republic! If Seymour and Blair should succeed, which we now have the strongest hopes will be effected, we have the best material of the whole country, composed of the friends of the Constitution of all former parties, to consolidate in it. If they should fail, the moral force of the numbers and worth of the party will check, in a great measure, the downward tendency of things until another election. Let the Democrats and Conservative men, of every party, resist all attempts at disintegration—let them destroy, root and branch, all old prejudices or all devotion to old dead issues, and concentrate solidly, as a wall of brass, upon the principles of the Democratic platform, to resist all encroachments upon the Constitution—and the Republic is safe. The introduction or continuance of old party prejudices or leanings, at a time like this, is unworthy of the great cause in which we are engaged.

WESTERN DIVISION OF THE N. C. RAILROAD.—It will be seen, by reference to our advertising columns, that the friends of the extension of the N. C. Railroad, in Western North Carolina, are moving energetically in the work. At recent meetings, held in Morganton, the Stockholders of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad organized by the election of G. W. Swepson, Esq., President, G. M. Roberts, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer, and Maj. J. C. Turner, Chief Engineer. These appointments give undoubted assurance of energy and skill, and the public may expect the completion of the Road in the shortest possible time, if no unforeseen impediment presents itself.

No portion of the Union offers greater inducements for development and for population and capital than Western North Carolina. It is one of the healthiest portions of the known world, and, with an energetic population and sufficient capital, will be one of the most desirable sections of our country. Push on the holsteins, and give to our Western people access to the markets of the world!

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

ARE YOU READY?

The time for argument is exhausted.—Nothing now remains, during the intervening week before the election, but to work—WORK—WORK unremittingly. Never had a people such incitements to exertion, as we of the South, particularly, have; and the man who is laggard, listless, indifferent or inactive, shows, by such a course, either that he is satisfied with the present condition of things, or that he has lost the instincts and pride of a freeman. He deserves the shackles with which he is bound, if he uses no exertion to throw them off.

Here are a people, in North Carolina, who, for over three years, while bearing all the burdens of government, were denied its benefits and blessings,—who have been the objects of the most malignant abuse and misrepresentation,—and who have been ground down beneath the iron heel of military power! Here are a people who, when remitted to the functions of so called civil government, have been insulted and outraged by the appointment of an ignorant and semi-barbarous magistracy,—by the degradation of their Judiciary,—by the presence and intimidation of armed negro troops, National and State,—who have been saddled with an immense burden of taxation, and with an expensive, useless and complicated "Code of Civil Procedure,"—and who are threatened with still more grievous evils in the future! If they can sit down quietly under such a state of affairs when they have an opportunity to take a step towards its rectification, who, of all the world, will not say, that they are the voluntary victims of their own disgrace,—consenting to their own ruin?

Let not this be said of you, true men, free men, of North Carolina! Rise in your majesty and might, and strike one vigorous blow for the grand old State of your nativity and affections. Rebuke the scallawag, carpet-bag, negro agents of power, with the stern and overwhelming expression of popular wrath and indignation. Show them that YOU RULE—and the remedy for the abuses and sufferings, under which you labor, will have been begun. The remedy lies with you, and with you, only. Whatever the result of the national contest, North Carolinians must, at last, set their own household in order and restore its ancient tranquility, cleanliness and thrift. Are you ready? Have you REGISTERED? Alas! that it should be thought necessary even to ask such a question.

MONARCHY ESTABLISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

In an editorial of the Standard, of the 24th. instant, we find the following unconditional claim of supreme despotic power over the administration of criminal justice in the State:

"The Sentinel forgets that the State is now in loyal hands, and that indictments found in opposition to the opinion of the Attorney General and the Governor would not hurt much."

If the above language were the offspring of the writer only, it would furnish evidence of a slavish depravity now existing in one citizen, at least, never heretofore avowed, if ever felt, by any freeman, in the State. But as the Standard is the peculiar organ of the "Governor" and most faithfully reflects him in all things, the people must now regard themselves as notified, that nothing can be criminal, no matter what may be the written or expounded law, unless deemed so by the Attorney General and the "Governor!"

The Judges, therefore, and the Grand and petit Jurors, too, must listen to the law opinions of these officials and be conclusively bound by them. Yes, the five Judges of the Supreme Court are duly informed, that they cannot pronounce to be a crime, any act, which is not so deemed by the "Governor" and his learned Attorney General!

Under this claim of despotic power, the people of the State may look out for an administration, which will practically "kill and make alive."

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Whatever may have been the prejudices excited against President Johnson, on account of his former history, or the blunders which marked his early administration, or his too ready yielding to the encroachments of Congress upon the Constitution and the powers of the Executive, still his earnest devotion to that noble instrument and the interests of civil liberty and of the white people entitle him to the gratitude of the nation.

There has been a strong effort made, by the Washington letter writers, to commit the President against the nominees of the National Democratic Convention. It has been repeatedly stated that Mr. Johnson was opposed to those nominees. This has been contradicted. But his noble letter to Mr. Seymour, published in our telegrams, on yesterday, puts the matter entirely at rest. We reproduce it, to-day, both on account of its noble sentiments and to re-assure the Democrats and Conservatives of the country, that President Johnson is with them, in supporting Seymour and Blair. Read the letter:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22, 1868.

Hon. Horatio Seymour:

I see it announced in the papers, this morning, that you will enter the Presidential canvass in person. I trust this may be so, as the present position of public affairs justifies and demands it. It is hoped and believed by your friends, that all enemies of a constitutional Government whether secret or avowed, will not be spared, and that their arrestary and unjust usurpations, together with their wasteful, profligate and corrupt use of the people's treasure, will be signally exposed and rebuked. The masses of the people should be aroused and warned against the encroachments of despotic power, now ready to enter the citadel of liberty. I trust that you may speak with an inspired tongue, and that your voice may penetrate every hut and patriotic breast throughout the land. Let the living principles of the violated Constitution be proclaimed and restored, that peace, prosperity and fraternal feeling may return to our divided and despoiled nation!

ANDREW JOHNSON."

YADKIN.—Those efficient and sterling Democrats, Col. A. C. Cowles and J. G. Marler, Esq., have canvassed this county thoroughly. Mr. Shober also canvassed the county, last week, and made a fine impression. A grand Mass Meeting is to be held at Yadkinville, on Saturday. We are assured that Yadkin will show a good Democratic gain, maugre the extra-ordinary course of Judge Pearson.

[From the Memphis Appeal, Oct. 12.]

THE SOUTH.

Yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock, Detectives McCune and Hastings, with Officers Welch, Holland, Smith, and Gallagher, surrounded a house on Court street, extended in the rear of the Charleston depot, and arrested a negro named Steven Torrence, alias "Twine," who was one of the gang who, some weeks ago, shot a Mr. Alexander on the Pigeon Roost road, near Camp Creek bridge, and set fire to his house. When the officers first obtained entrance to the house, the inmates (some fifteen or twenty negroes) persistently denied knowing anything about the party that they were in quest of; but a short search soon revealed him curled up under a trundle bed with a little negro boy on side of him, a girl on the other. On being discovered, he stoutly averred that he was not the man they were looking for, but "another man altogether." Finding that they were determined to take him, any way, he at last admitted his identity, and on being carried to the station house made a clean confession of the whole affair, which for the remarkable statements contained therein, we give in full. The confession proves the statements made and reiterated by the Appeal, that the negroes in and around the city were armed and organized, in regular bands, to murder and plunder the Conservative white citizens.—It was made by the prisoner in the presence of this reporter, and Detective McCune, (others being present also,) under no restraint whatever, and of his own free will. "That night," (the night of the Alexander affair,) "Dock Woods called us together—five of us—and said we must go somewhere and get some meat. After we got out a piece on the Charleston road, one of the men said, 'Let's get a calf and go home.' Dock Woods said, 'There's no use of having any foolishness about this thing. I come to get something, and am going to get it.' I and Aaron Gallagher started to go back, but Dock Woods said he was captain, and he and Joe Webb and Jim Shaffin got mad, so we went on with them. When we got to Cane Creek, I said let's go to this man's house (Alexander's) and get some watermelons. Dock Woods said, 'No, I came for money; I'm going to h—a house for that; he has got plenty.'" Question by reporter—"We were all armed. Dock Woods was the captain. Aaron Gallagher had a gun, and the balance of us had pistols.—Dock had always been at this thing. I had only been on one expedition like this before. This was my second trip. We went up to the House easily, and Dock Woods posted one of us on each side of the house, like regular sentinels. After doing this, he went to the door on a little porch, and tried to shove it in, and called to the man to come out. He would not do it, and Dock left the door and went to the window by it, and as he did so the man put his gun out of the window and fired it off. Dock left the window then and went to the sunrise side of the house and, picking up a sort of a young tree, smashed in the window on that side. After he did this he told the man to come out, saying if he did not he would set the house a fire and burn it up. The man reasoned and begged with him, but Dock took a bunch of six fodder, fastened it on the end of a pole, set it afire and shoved it into the house. I did not like this, and hollowed, 'Let's go and get some chickens, and leave this business.'—But they would not let me, and said 'we must have money, that's what we came for.' After this I heard a gun fire, and I ran into the house, which they had already broken into. Aaron Gallagher had fired the gun, and the man (Mr. Alexander) was lying on the floor bleeding. Aaron and Jim Shaffin had a trunk broken open and was going through it. Dock was hurrying them up, and when I came he cursed me and told me to go back. He said that that woman had gone to arouse the neighborhood. That was the first I had heard of a woman.—With this I went out, and pretty soon they all came out and we hurried off home. I went to Arkansas the next day and staid there awhile; then I came over on this side and went down into Mississippi; but I did not have any rest. I had to come back."—Question by the Reporter—"We are regularly organized. The first principle was not to taken away from, or harm, the Union men or colored people, but to get those rebels wherever we could. By rebels we mean those men that are working against Grant, and are going to vote against him. We believe that is the right way to break them all up. I am a Grant man, and I am going to vote for him. That way to serve the rebels is the only way to break them up."—It is proper to state that the prisoner thought that he was detailing this to Radicals, and that this candid confession of the motives, with his declaration of the intention to vote for Grant, was sufficient partisan of the crime to secure his easy discharge. Conservative men! Democrats! White men! Voters of the North and the East and West, are you prepared to cast your ballots for a man, the representative of a party, under whose banners, and by the teaching of whose high priests, such devilish, inhuman, and outrageous means are resorted to secure a political victory?

REMEMBER that delays are dangerous. Therefore register, TO-DAY. Your vote may be necessary to carry the State.

A VILLAINOUS BARGAIN—BROWNLOW A PARTNER IN THE PROFITS OF HIS OWN PROCLAMATIONS.—During the late term of the Circuit Court at Smithville, DeKalb County, Judge McLain presiding, a murder case was tried in which Judge Mansen McBrien, of this city, was engaged. In the course of his argument Judge Brien made the startling declaration that "there is a regular partnership existing between Wm. G. Brownlow and Colonel Blackburn, on the following terms: That the said Colonel Blackburn shall arrest and convey to Nashville all men in that section of the State who are accused of horse stealing, murder and other crimes, and that when they have arrived in Nashville, and before they are tried, Brownlow shall offer a reward for their arrest. Brownlow and Blackburn divide the money between them, sharing equally in the profits arising from Brownlow's recent proclamation."

Judge Brien elicited this statement from the evidence of Col. Blackburn. He denounced the partnership as a "species of infamy heretofore unknown," and further stated that he "expected to be assassinated for exposing the parties, and that the speech he was then making was the last he ever expected to be permitted to make at the bar."—Nashville Banner, Oct. 18.

The Hartsville Vidette says of this villainous conspiracy:

"The case in all of its horrible details was brought to light in open court at Smithville before the Hon. Judge McLain, and from his well known zeal in punishing illegal acts it is fair to presume that the name of William G. Brownlow will soon figure in the list of indictments by the De Kalb county grand jury, and that he will learn that such exemplifications of 'loyalty' will not be allowed in the Mountain Circuit, and especially in the chivalrous county of De Kalb."

MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS.

PURSUANT TO PREVIOUS NOTICE, THE General Commissioners heretofore appointed to open Books for subscription to the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, met at the town of Morganton, in the Court House in said town, on the 15th day of October, 1868.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, Wm. A. T. Davidson was called to the Chair, and B. F. Stimpson appointed Secretary.

The roll of Commissioners was then called, when it was ascertained that a majority of said Commissioners were present.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, a Committee of three was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Gen. R. M. Henry, G. W. Swepson and Hon. S. L. Love, to inspect the books of subscription returned by the Commissioners, to ascertain what amount of stock had been subscribed.

On motion of Gen. R. M. Henry, it was resolved that said Committee be instructed to declare all stock subscribed on which 5 per cent had not been paid heretofore, or at this time, void.

Said Committee retired, and after a short time reported that 3,080 shares, of $100 each, had been subscribed, amounting to $308,000, on which the 5 per cent. had been paid, to wit: $15,400.

It was then ordered that the books of subscription reported by the Commissioners be turned over to the Stockholders.

On motion, the Commissioners' meeting then adjourned.

A. T. DAVIDSON, Chm'n.

B. F. STIMPSON, Sec'y.

On motion, the Stockholders proceeded to the election of four Directors, to wit: Hon. A. T. Davidson, Gen. T. L. Clingman, G. M. Roberts and Jas. H. Merrimon, Esq.

Resolved, That the by-laws of the Eastern Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad be adopted as the by-laws of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, so far as they are locally applicable, and that a Committee be appointed to draft by-laws and report at the next meeting.

The Chairman appointed Gen. M. S. Littlefield, Gen. T. L. Clingman and G. W. Swepson on said Committee. On motion,

On motion, Hon. J. C. Abbott was called to the Chair, and G. M. Roberts appointed Secretary.

On motion, the Board proceeded to the election of President for said Western Division.

Gen. T. L. Clingman nominated G. W. Swepson, who was declared duly elected.

Hon. J. C. Abbott then vacated the Chair, and the President assumed the duties of the same.

It was ordered that the Chief Engineer proceed forthwith to survey and locate the main trunk of the Road from the French Broad to the Tennessee line, at or near Jockstown; and also the branch of said Road from the Paint Rock to the main line at or near Asheville.

Resolved, That the President and Chief Engineer be, and they are hereby, authorized to let out by contract, the whole of the Road forthwith, upon the conditions, nevertheless, that the right is reserved to re-let the whole, or any part of the said work, at any time hereafter that they may see fit.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SURE B. AND CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

TICKETS! TICKETS!

The election is only about ten days off. Are the Counties supplied with tickets? We fear this matter is being neglected in some portions of the State. It was announced, weeks ago, that each County must supply its own tickets. Are you supplied, friends?

We print plain tickets, on plain paper, for $2 per thousand, and on colored paper, with flags, for $3 per 1,000. These embrace the Electoral ticket, and the Congressional ticket for each District. Cash must accompany the orders.

Important sale of a City lot, on the 28th of November: J. P. H. Russ.

EASTERN WARD, LAST NIGHT.—The gallant Democrats of the Eastern Ward had a spirited meeting, last night, and were eloquently and effectively addressed by F. F. Busbee and M. A. Bledsoe, Esqrs. Other gentlemen probably addressed the meeting at a late hour, of which the Secretary will inform us. Our own engagements, unfortunately, kept us away. The Eastern Ward—always true and ready—will give a good account of itself next week.

NOTICE—PIANOS.—We take pleasure in informing our friends, and the musical public, generally, that Mr. F. W. Walter, the well known agent and tuner of the firm of Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore, will be in the City, in a few days. All in need of his services should leave their orders at once at the Exchange Hotel.

REGISTRATION IN RALEIGH.—Up to noon, yesterday, registration in this City footed up about as follows:

Whites	600
Blacks	1,168
Total	1,768

This is doing better, but many white men are yet to register. Numbers of negroes are registering here from all parts of the county. Their names, generally, are known, and every precaution will be taken to prevent fraudulent voting.

When next Saturday night comes, let it not be said that any white man in Raleigh, worthy of the name, has failed to register!

FISH.—Our market is pretty well supplied with fish, from Norfolk and Newbern. They are fine, but rather high for comfort. We are indebted to Oliver Roane for a couple of fine trout. Oliver understands the fish business and has a daily supply.

BARBECUES THE PRESENT WEEK.—Democratic Mass Meetings and Barbecues will be held in this County, the present week, at the following times and places, viz:

Auburn,	Tuesday, (to day,)	Oct. 27
Banks'	Thursday,	" 29
Franklin's	Saturday,	" 31

Good speaking, good cheer, and a good time, generally, may be expected, at all of these places.

OAK GROVE.

The Democratic Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Oak Grove, in this county, on Saturday, passed off gloriously. Fully 700 people,—including a number of ladies,—were present, by actual count. The Newlight Club—all mounted—came down in force.—A spirit of great hopefulness and enthusiasm prevailed.

The Hon. S. H. Rogers was the first speaker, and he held the large audience enchained, until the dinner hour, with a most searching, compact and powerful argument.

After dinner, effective speeches were made by W. W. Guess, Esq., of Orange, and Col. J. P. H. Russ.

This section of the county will do its whole duty. Set that down.

CHATHAM.—We learn that Dewease and McDonald had "a hard road to travel" in Chatham, last week. They were met at every point and riddled. It is said that they are disgusted with Chatham.

CHOWAN.—None of the Radical County officers elected, in this county, we are told, were able to give a bond, except the Register. The other offices had to be filled by the Commissioners, who were compelled to appoint the defeated Conservative candidates,—no Radical being found able to give the bond, except the Register, aforesaid. Well done, Chowan!

JAS. M. TURNER, the man who charged for 524 miles, as a member of the Convention, when he only travelled about 60, is the scallawag candidate for the Legislature in Harnett. Dr. Ben. C. Williams is the Democratic candidate and will be elected.

REGISTRATION, in Wilmington, up to Saturday, footed up: Whites 609, Blacks 1,685. It is to be hoped that in Wilmington, Raleigh, and every where else in the State, our friends, this week, will be up and doing. NOW OR NEVER! We repeat, what we have heretofore said, that the man, in this emergency, who fails to register and to vote, deserves all that may come upon him as the result of his criminal neglect!

THE Journal of Commerce says that those talented young Democrats, Messrs. F. C. Roberts and M. DeW. Stevenson, are bearing our banner gallantly to every part of Craven.

Our Fayetteville Correspondence.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 24.

Editors of the Sentinel:—Our town, though an old fashioned, staid place, out of the great highway of trade, travel and tom-foolery, has, nevertheless, its spasms of intense feeling, excitement, indignation, joy, and every other emotion of which the human heart is capable. * * * * *

Dockery spoke here on Wednesday evening. He was replied to by Burt. Fuller, Esq., and then had the privilege of fifteen minutes rejoinder. I look upon him as one of the best (if not the very best,) stump speakers that the Radicals have in the State. Taking him, phrenologically and physiognomically, he is the very model of a wily demagogue. Coarse, bristly hair, high, blank forehead, a mouth with a parabolic curve, he can utter a falsehood with the same voice (which is full and very fine) in which he relates a common place occurrence. He has this merit, (if it be one,) that he acknowledges publicly his mendacity and inconsistency, and freely confesses his political blackness. He is the very type of a canting, fanatical, revolutionary, Radical leader, and I am little surprised at his success with his dupes. It would be hard to imagine a greater contrast than between him and Mr. Fuller—the latter a finished scholar, rhetorician and gentleman; the former keen only in party craft, a boisterous, ranting declaimer, and lacking every trait of social culture and refinement. The latter representing the patriot and honorable citizen, true to his principles through every change of fortune; the former an apostate from his past creed, a renegade from his people and country, sold for a handful of silver. But who can say but that Dockery's harangue, with its quibbling and its misrepresentations, will not have more supporters here than Mr. Fuller's manly, straight-to ward address? "Whom the gods would surely destroy, they first make mad;" Grant's followers are fast approaching the frenzy of chaotic lunacy—let the destruction from the Furies come also.

Our lower jaw dropped a little on the morning of the first news of the elections at the North, but our people quickly rallied, and are now "going for them" still in a very vigorous style for their "time of life." Democratic meetings, barbecues and jubilees are as popular and as enthusiastic as ever, and, come what may, we in this county and section will do our duty in the thickest of the coming fight. Every county, I rejoice to see, throws out a voice of hope and cheer to our old mother; and when the smoke of the battle next month clears away, North Carolina will issue forth radiant and beautiful, as in the past, and she will have thrown down upon the field of the conflict the foul mantle which her foes and persecutors have thrown about her as a mockery to her sorrow and affliction.

There was a large meeting at Egypt, on W. R. R., Tuesday last. Many attended from Fayetteville—among them the invincible, irrepressible, uncompromising "red shirts," who are always in front where good men ought to be. On the way down, S. H. Fishblate, of this place, in reply to the epithet of "liar" from one McDonald, a Radical, tapped digitally the aforesaid Caledonian, and set his teeth further back and him further down. "Cousin John" spoke, and was replied to by a colored Democrat, who cordially and familiarly germanized him.

A company of negro troops from Goldsboro, marching through the country, will be here, to night, to garrison the place. They are not wanted or needed, God knows; but this and much else, to satisfy Radical hatred, we have to bear, for a little while. Let us be patient; those who suffer undeserved calamities, and have foul wrongs heaped upon them, may be well assured that there is a God above who can reward at last—and punish.

Crops are spoken of well in this section; wheat is fair, corn is fine, and cotton is not to be found fault with. A good deal of new cotton is coming into this, the best market in the State.

CLIO.

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we MUST carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

A WARNING.

News. Editors:—The late elections show that Scallawags and Carpet Baggers scruple at no kind of fraud, such as voting three or four times, stuffing ballot boxes and perjuring themselves at any time to secure a vote. I think it will be as well to check them as much as possible. Now what will be the best method of doing it?

All along the line of the Railroad presents a fine field of operation for them. For instance, two trains come in at 9 or 10 o'clock. How many voters can come from Smithfield, Selma, Clayton, and so on on the Raleigh & Gaston Road, and have ample time to vote, and then go back on the 1 o'clock train, the same day? It don't cost anything for illegal voters and members of scallawag and negro Conventions to ride on the North Carolina Railroad, and the expense for an honest man to travel to watch these perjurers will not be much.—Now say one goes to Clayton and attends the polls, until the train comes up; he will see who votes there. Then let him go to the polls, on his arrival here, and he will see if they vote here. Let him do the same on the trains leaving here, and by that means I think you can stop a thousand votes. They will stop at nothing to accomplish their purposes, for it is a dying kick with them.

For my part, I will go any where to watch the rascals.

M.

A SPUNKY CLERK.—REPLY TO THE RADICAL CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.—One C. A Chipley, of the Third Auditor's office, has come out rather strong on the Congressional Republican Committee for asking him to contribute "a voluntary offering" to aid the election of Grant and Colfax. He replies to the committee in a bold letter, which, after showing Chipley to be for Seymour and Blair, and after pitching into the whole career of radicalism, concludes thus:

"And you ask me to contribute to help keep this party in power. I cannot do it. I full well know the consequence of a refusal. The office I hold, which is only sufficient to support my family, I know will be taken from me, and my wife and little ones be made to feel the effects of the refusal; but I have one consolation in the thought that I lived before I came into office and by the help of God can live without it. I presume, sir, the success of your party in the recent elections has made you more bold in demanding of the office holder means to carry out your political ends. I notice a great many persons who are opposed to you politically have been the recipients of these insulting circulars, more insulting, because they have been sent by your Committee since the elections in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Had the elections in these States gone adversely to your party, these circulars would not have been sent to the Conservative employees in the different departments. As it is, the circular means, "your money or your office." I say take the latter, but give me a clear conscience that I live up to what I honestly believe is right and just.

The following were the remarks of Hon. Francis Kernan, at Syracuse, Wednesday, just as Governor Seymour was about stepping into the cars, on his way to Buffalo:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Our opponents have been flattering themselves that the small successes they have had through corruption and fraud in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, indicated that they were going to succeed in the Presidential election. They were never more mistaken. (Cries of 'bully' and cheers.) This vast spontaneous gathering of citizens shows that the people are in this war, and they are going to overthrow the office holders and the corruptionists.—(Applause.) This contest is by the people, to re-establish and restore throughout these States the authority of the Constitution, and to give to the people of every State the protection of that Constitution. (Cries of 'good, good' and cheers.) This contest is by the people against the factionist party who have ruled the Government for three years for the sake of the party, and not for the sake of the entire people.—(Applause.) This contest is by the people to rescue our Government from its extravagance and corruption, and to restore again the harmonious Union of all the States.—[Cries of 'good,' and cheers.] Why, we say to our opponents to-day, that the contest has only just opened in earnest in behalf of the Democracy. [Great and tremendous cheering.] We have failed in Pennsylvania, but the party that in 1864, at the last Presidential election, carried that State by 20,000, now, with all that corruption could do, with all that money could do, with all that fraud could do, they are trying to cipher out a majority of some 6,000 or 7,000. In Indiana, which they carried by thousands, they are trying to cipher out a majority of 600 or 700. And Ohio, which in 1864 they carried by 55,000, they have only carried by some 10,000 or 12,000. (Great cheering.) The people are just beginning to move on this Radical party, and when the people rise up to examine and rebuke the misrule and corruption, and unconstitutional policy which has prevailed for the last three years, never fear but that we will be able to succeed in restoring the Government to what it ought to be. (Applause.) My fellow-citizens, the party that is opposing us, the party that is now in power in this nation, is composed of all that is corrupt; it is composed of men who have been making money during the last three years from taxes gathered from you, money taken by them from the public Treasury, and we know that our opponents will strive and struggle to continue to themselves that power during the next four years: and this we also know, that if this Government is to be saved, if this Constitution which our gallant soldiers upheld is not to go down through the machinations of politicians; we know that if we are to have again a restored Union, that the people must succeed, and therefore, with God's help, we will succeed. (Tremendous cheering.) Where is the Union to-day? Where is the Union of the States that your gallant men from Onondaga went down to the battle-field to preserve? Why, you and I know that through the unconstitutional legislation of our opponents, that Union is not restored, and if that power is to continue for four years more, it never will be. Aye more, it will be destroyed if that party succeed more than it would by the success of armed rebels, the enemies of our gallant soldiers. (Great applause.)—Fellow-citizens, be true but once more, and we will win the contest. (Great and prolonged cheering, amid which the speaker retired, and the people again assembled at the depot, and when the train started on its way West, thousands of voices sent up cheers for Seymour and Blair.)

THE ELECTORAL WEIGHT OF THE STATES.

There have been twenty Presidential elections since the adoption of the Constitution. At the two first Washington was unanimously chosen. Party contests began with the Presidential campaign of 1801, when Jefferson was elected. The electoral weight of the several sections of the Union since that time may be determined by the following summary. The New England States cast the bulk of their electoral vote for the successful candidate in eight elections, and for the unsuccessful candidate in seven elections. The Middle States voted on the successful side sixteen times, and on the unsuccessful side twice (once for Clinton and once for Jackson.) The Western States voted on the successful side twelve times, and on the unsuccessful side twice (once for Cass and once for Fremont.) The Southern States voted on the successful side fourteen times, and on the unsuccessful side four times. The Pacific States have voted in four elections, and have every time thrown their electoral vote on the successful side.—It will be seen, therefore, that the Presidential elections have been more largely controlled by the influence of the Middle States than of any other section. Indeed, of the two adverse instances cited, they should really be credited with but one, for Gen. Jackson, for whom the bulk of the Central States voted in 1825, had a plurality of the electoral and a large majority of the popular vote, but was defeated by Adams in consequence of the election being thrown into the House of Representatives. Thus it may be remarked that as the Middle States have gone, so has gone the Union, in every election except that of 1813, when New York and New Jersey gave DeWitt Clinton thirty-seven votes, and Pennsylvania gave Madison (the successful candidate) twenty-five. To descend to particular States in the twenty Presidential elections, Massachusetts has thrown her weight on the successful side ten times and on the unsuccessful side ten times. Pennsylvania has cast her weight on the successful side eighteen times and on the unsuccessful side but twice (for Jefferson in 1797, and Jackson in 1825.) New York has cast her weight on the successful side seventeen times and the unsuccessful side three times (for Clinton in 1813, and Fremont in 1857.) She did not participate in the first Presidential election. Virginia cast her weight on the successful side fourteen times and on the unsuccessful side five times. She did not participate in the election of 1824. Ohio has voted since 1804, and has been successful eleven times and unsuccessful five times. Illinois has voted since 1820, and has been successful ten times and unsuccessful twice. Kentucky has voted since 1792, and has been on the winning side eleven times and on the losing side eight times; three of these being when she voted for Henry Clay. These examples, and others that might be recorded, show that Pennsylvania and New York have been the keystone to the arch, and have in nearly every case decided the contest. Shall the Democracy hold them in the great battle of 1868, and thus secure the election of Horatio Seymour?

WEST VIRGINIA STILL UNDECIDED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, M.

The Wheeling Intelligencer (Radical) claims the State by 3,500, the Legislature and the first and second Congressional Districts.

The Register (Democratic) says that tolerably complete returns from only eighteen Counties, out of 53, show nett gains of 2 500, and that "the same ratio of gain throughout the State, which ratio certainly exists, will give us West Virginia by a handsome majority."

FROM NEW ORLEANS—TERRIBLE FRUITS OF RADICALISM.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26, P. M.

The city has, all day, been filled with excited rumors of trouble at St. Bernard's Parish, adjoining New Orleans, below the city. From information brought to Headquarters by the Sheriff, and others, it appears that a difficulty occurred, on yesterday, on occasion of a public display by a couple of Democratic Clubs, in which one white man was wounded and two negroes killed—one being a member of the Metropolitan police. At night, the negroes congregated and proceeded in a body to the house of a Spanish baker, killing him, his son and sister-in-law, and burning his house—his wife escaping with her child in her arms. Two other houses are reported to have been burned, and at one four children are reported killed.

Rumors are various and conflicting as to the extent of the outrages. Many of the white inhabitants of the Parish deserted their homes last night and fled to this city, early this morning. Upon the first notification of the troubles, Gen. Buchanan ordered a company of infantry to march down the river. Later in the day, he dispatched another company of the first infantry on the steamer "Ella Morse," instructing the officers in charge to arrest all of the ringleaders of disturbances who could be found.

It is currently reported, this evening, that the first body of infantry were attacked, but by whom, it is not ascertained. Staff officers have been dispatched to investigate the matter.

When the rumor spread, this morning, large numbers of white men congregated at the levee, in the lower part of the City, and chartered three tugs to carry them to the scene of action, but were prevented from leaving the City by order of General Rousseau, as a number of troops had been sent.

The disturbed condition of affairs deterred Internal Revenue officials from entering the Parish, to-day, in the discharge of their duties.

Prominent members of both political parties had an interview with General Rousseau, to-day, and mutually agreed to discountenance and prevent, as far as possible, any further public political demonstrations.

General Rousseau intends removing all troops in the vicinity into the city, to prevent a re-occurrence of the scenes of Saturday night. The recent disturbances demonstrated the utter helplessness of the civil government. No effort, on its part, was apparent, until the appearance of soldiers on the ground.

On Saturday night, for two hours after a riot in Canal Street, not a single Policeman was to be seen, though a number were congregated on St. Charles Street, within four blocks of the scene. The Metropolitan Police law now in operation and force, as organized, comprises a very large proportion of negroes!

We had occasion to visit the city of Richmond last week and stopped at Ford's Hotel, where we met with so many comforts and luxuries, that we cannot but call the attention of the traveling public to this house.

This fine hotel building adjoins the Capitol Square, with all its natural beauties.—It is in a quiet retired part of the city, and yet very near the business portion of it.

The house has been lately rebuilt and thoroughly and elegantly furnished, all with a view to the comfort and convenience of guests. The clerks and servants are prompt, polite and efficient. The tables are bountifully supplied with all that can be had; and take due notice, that it is all done for only $2.50 per day.—Square and Compass.

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some to back again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you. One thing is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution: and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or in moderate sized tracts, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be supported by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rally all our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old ties of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
